

Sacred Heart College 1979

You've come a long way Baby . . .

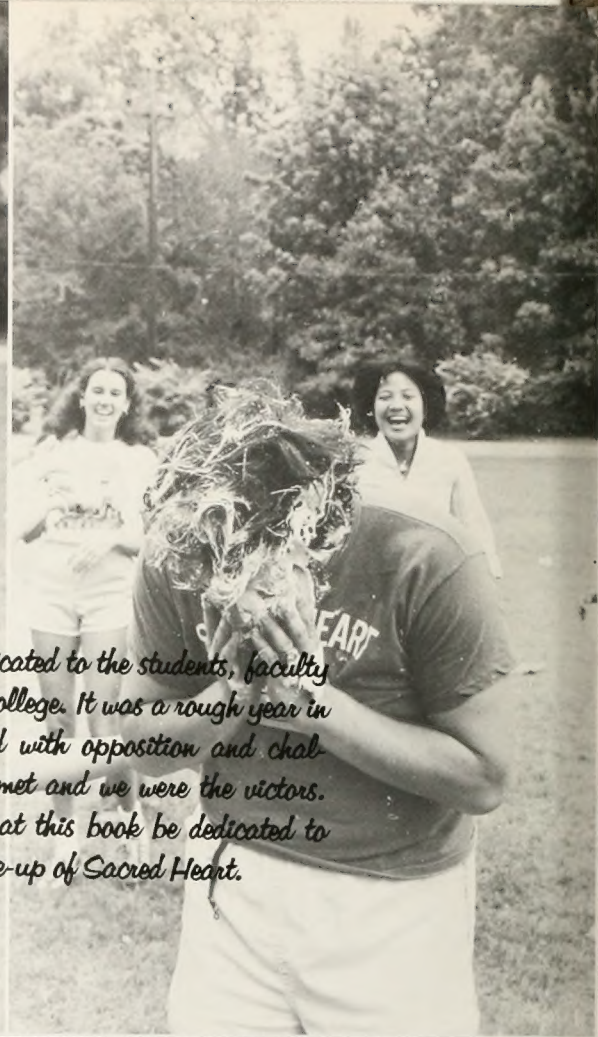

Memories . . .

One day we'll look back on these days as how they came to be yesterdays, tomorrow.

Richard Carolina

This year's annual is dedicated to the students, faculty and staff of Sacred Heart College. It was a rough year in many ways. We were faced with opposition and challenges. The challenges were met and we were the victors. So it seemed only fitting that this book be dedicated to those who really are the make-up of Sacred Heart.

JUNIORS

*Someone is now knocking at my door quietly and patiently bidding an open way
Is he a stranger? a friend?
Which am I hoping for?
Which am I wanting?
How will I respond to the nameless knock?
How will I answer my door?*

SOPHOMORES

I am half way there, now I must find the courage to go on.

I dream often of what I hope to achieve sometimes, that dream seems so far away, so out of reach.

But then I look back on these past few years, and I can see how far I've already come.

In realizing this, once again I find courage and I am ready to move on.

FRESHMEN

I came not knowing really where I was going but I knew it would be an adventure. It seems it was only yesterday I said good-bye to old friends not knowing who the new ones would be.

I found many though, and found too I myself to be a unique person with hidden strengths, and many talents. Now I feel like an old pro, one who knows she can be a winner.

There are many teachers, but few educators. The difference between the two is: a teacher will teach only what he or she knows, and an educator will motivate a student to strive for more.

*Time is growing short and the light of challenge must lead the way
I'll always look back and treasure these special golden days Times when I was with people who stopped and shared People — special people like you who told me they cared.*

SPRING WEEKEND

The circus came in the spring of '79 and with it came laughter, joy and smiles.

SOME HEARTS CAN

Welcome
Parents

Let me entertain you . . .

Killing me softly with his song . . .

And then there was a fairy tale . . .

I want to get married.

One, two, three kick . . .

Oh you can't get a man with a gun . . .

Where is love . . .

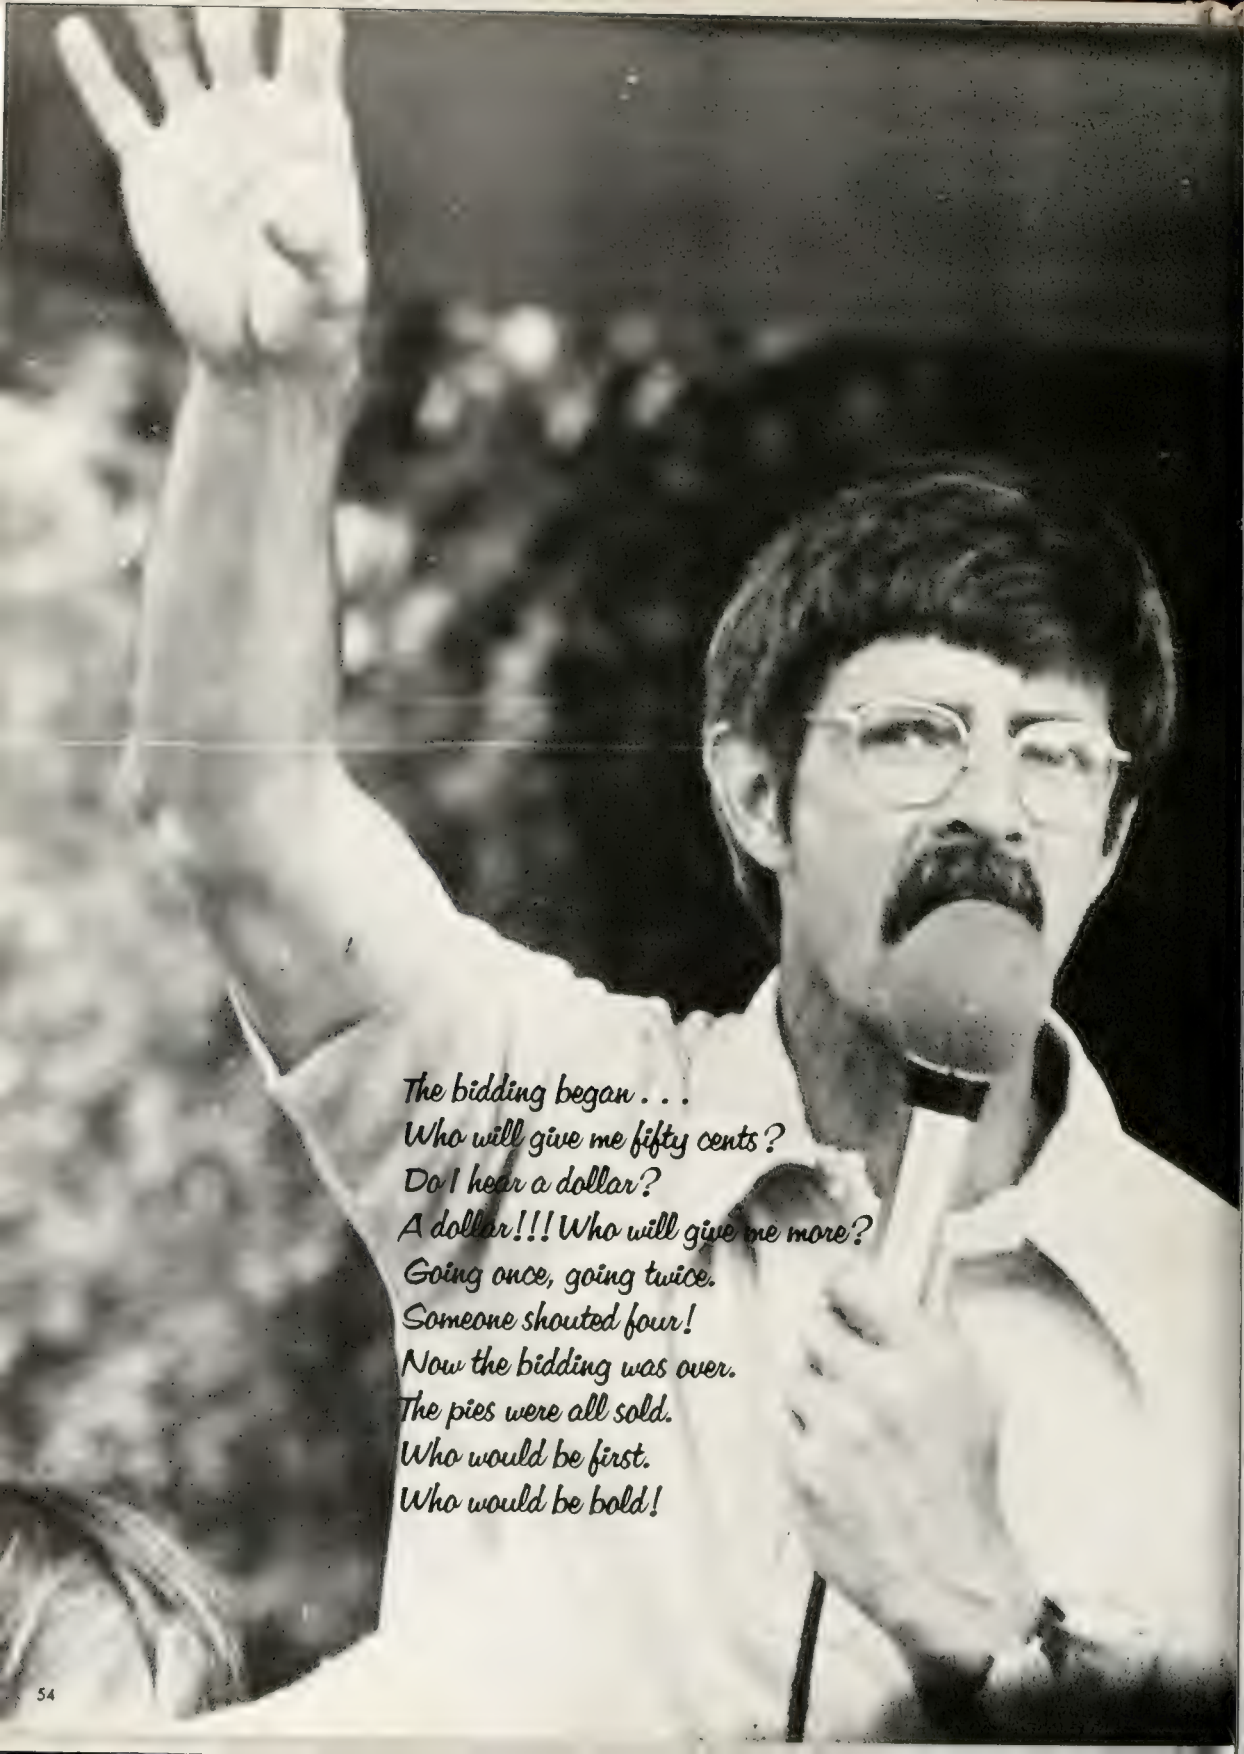

Hello, my name is Sister John.

Father forgive them.

VENT OLYMPICS 79...

*The bidding began . . .
Who will give me fifty cents?
Do I hear a dollar?
A dollar!!! Who will give me more?
Going once, going twice.
Someone shouted four!
Now the bidding was over.
The pies were all sold.
Who would be first.
Who would be bold!*

I hate lemon pie.

This has no logical explanation!

Rub it in! Rub it in!

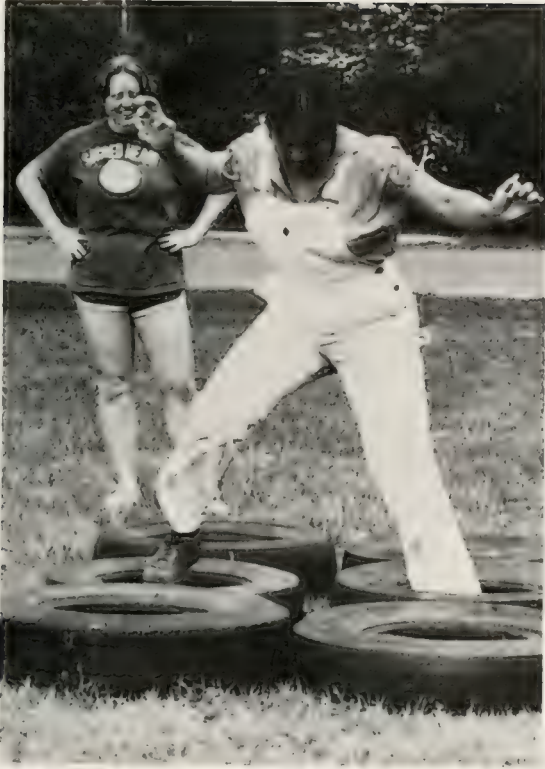

There's a pit in my eye!

Oh no! I lost my apple.

Now where do I go?

What's in the middle of these things!

You want me to go next?

Wanda, pick it up!

Higher, Margie, higher!

Christmas 79

DECORATING THE HALLS

Christmas Party "78"

*I sought my soul
But my soul I could not see
I sought my God,
But my God eluded me
I sought my friend
And I found all three.*

STUDENT LIFE

Oh my gosh!

I don't believe it!

That's hysterical!

*Someday it will be worthwhile
I know I can feel it.
But now it seems so hard Growing, letting go, becoming . . .
Oh well, I made it through today
Now there is tomorrow.*

Welcome Frosh —

Oh my gosh, what happened?

May I have this dance?

Kiss me, you fool! You're a fool if you do!

I think you need more blue.

Try tying a knot here.

This story is spooky!

Hello!

Sometimes you just have a blah day.

It's the guy standing over in the corner.

Well, hurry and take the picture.

TO GIVE
* Love IS TO GIVE LIFE *

ST. PATTY'S DAY '79

ERIN GO BRAG

HUNDRED DAYS PARTY

Somehow that seems impossible.
Just think, soon it will be as if I were a freshman all over again True, I'm a little older, a little wiser but still in facing the unknown, there is a little fear.
Only a hundred days left . . .
Somehow that seems impossible.*

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY, BABY

*It used to be that women just stayed home and did the washing and cooked the meals.
Once in a while they went out to do the shopping. Women were seen and never heard.
Then one day they'd had enough. And soon the whole world heard them. We've come a long way since the days of corsets and long petticoats.*

Sometimes I sit quietly and think of my future.

I am not sure what I will do yet with my life.

But what is exciting to me is that I have the freedom to do or become anything I myself want.

*I am free to speak on behalf of my beliefs,
And to work in support of these beliefs.*

*I am a woman, a human being.
I am me, and that in itself is a nice thought.*

*We have come a long way.
Sometimes it hasn't been easy and all of us have had to work hard.
The important thing is, we did work,
and we are still going strong.*

GRADUATION 79

*You have dreamed of this day.
Now it is a reality.
Your goal was set
and you reached for it.
You have achieved your dream.
We will miss you,
but we wish you success in your future.*

Congratulations, Class of '79!

You've worked hard for this day. Now it is upon you Sometimes you probably wondered if it really ever would come. Soon all your work of four years will end in a single day. It is a new beginning for you, a new adventure. So dare to dream, and do not settle for anything less than what you can be.

Your time to be . . . to become You have started your growth, your seeds were planted and life began. Here you experienced learning and the reality of the world around you. You have become a part of us. We will remember you in our future for you have left your mark. What you have begun we will carry on. It is time now for you to leave us and share with others what you have gained here. It is your time to become.

You've come a long way baby . . .

Another year has come and gone. It will be a year for all of us to remember. We were challenged by life and we met the challenge and won. So we will face another year of new adventures and we will be ready. We walked the extra mile and now it's time to start over.

You have come a long way, baby!

You've come a long way Baby . . .
